

XM Radio choices are a constitutional right and should be allowed. Freedom of choice is one of the many things we deserve as Americans. If a person chooses this option and pays for it then that is their right. Limiting or regulating this for competitor's financial gain is not supportive of enterprising businesses and aren't we for all the people's choices in this country? Thank you.